

Footnote across columns and pages

Page 1: select footnote 44, then scroll through its yellow highlight.

See⁴⁴ the continuing footnote.

This is body text, outside the note.

Read the left note block first,

then the right note block.

This is one footnote with three blocks.

Its next block is in the right column.

Continue reading to the right...

MIDDLE: page 1, right column.

This text still belongs to footnote 44.

No new footnote number appears here.

Footnote across columns and pages

Page 2: select footnote 44, then scroll through its yellow highlight.

Main article resumes on this page.

Body text should stay unhighlighted.

Footnote 44 ends in the left column.

Footnote 45 is a separate note.

END: page 2, left column.

This completes the same footnote 44.

The next numbered note is excluded.

⁴⁵ Separate footnote: do not highlight this text when footnote 44 is selected.
